Notice Type: Approval Notice

We have mailed an official notice about this case (and any relevant documentation) according to the mailing preferences you chose on Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice.

What the Official Notice Said

You may not use this courtesy copy to prove that you filed this case or that we made a certain decision on this case. You must use the official notice.

The U.S. Department of State has recommended that you and any members of your immediate family be granted a waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement from section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). This recommendation refers only to the two-year foreign residence requirement that you must meet as a current or prior nonimmigrant J-1 exchange visitor.

After considering the evidence in your case and based on the Department of State's favorable recommendation, USCIS is granting a waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement to you and any members of your immediate family who needed to fulfill the two-year foreign residency requirement solely because of their relationship to you.

Please note that if any members of your immediate family must fulfill the two-year foreign residence requirement because of their own current or prior nonimmigrant status as a J-1 exchange visitor, they must request a separate waiver for themselves.

USCIS has completed the processing of your application. The back of this form contains additional general information. If you have any further questions, please contact your local USCIS office.

THIS NOTICE IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. We will notify you separately about any other cases you have filed.

- . Give you any legal immigration status or allow you to obtain a legal status in the United States.
- . Protect you from removal proceedings or stay the execution of a final order of removal.
- . Allow you to work in the United States.
- . Guarantee that you will be issued an immigrant visa by the Department of State.
- . Guarantee your admission to the United States by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).
- . Authorize parole or advance parole to return to the United States without an immigrant visa.

NOTE: If you depart the United States and enter or attempt to reenter without being inspected and admitted, or paroled, your approved provisional unlawful presence waiver will become invalid.

NOTICE**

I-601A Applicants in Removal Proceedings

If you are in removal proceedings, obtain a termination or dismissal order from EOIR. If you are in removal proceedings and USCIS approves your Form I-601A, it is important that you seek an order from EOIR that terminates or dismisses your removal proceedings before you leave the United States. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may delay processing of your immigrant visa based on another ground of inadmissibility. Leaving the United States before your removal proceedings are terminated or dismissed may also result in the automatic revocation of your approved provisional unlawful presence waiver. Visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/provisionalwaiver for information about how to seek termination or dismissal of your removal proceedings before you depart the United States.

You and/or your legal representative should contact the relevant U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Office of the Chief Counsel to make arrangements to have your removal proceedings dismissed. A list of ICE Chief Counsel phone numbers is available on the internet at: <http://www.ice.gov/contact/opla/>. When you contact ICE, please have a copy of this approval notice available for ICE's review.
